

TRAFALGAR THEATRE – SOCIAL STORY

I am going to Trafalgar Theatre to see Oh Mary!

If I don't have my ticket yet, I will go to Box Office. They can sell a ticket to me or print a paper ticket if I have already paid.

If I have my ticket I will go to the front doors.

The person on the door will want to see my ticket.

I will show it to them, and they will scan the QR code.

The person on the door will tell me where I need to go and if there is any important information.

I will listen and then go inside.

I might need to wait in line at the Theatre as other people may want to go to the bar, the toilet or into the Auditorium too.

I might have to wait a little while, but this is OK. If I feel overwhelmed or need any help I can speak to a member of staff.

There will be lots of people working at Trafalgar Theatre who will be happy to help me if I have any questions or need any assistance.

When I enter the Theatre, I can go to the Cloakroom, the bar or the toilet.

If I don't want to carry my bag or coat with me I can leave it at the Cloakroom.

The staff will keep everything in the Cloakroom safe.

This will cost me £1 per item I wish to leave.

The staff will give me a tag and I will collect my items whenever I want.

If I need any hearing devices I can talk to the Staff at the Cloakroom.

There is a bar in the Foyer once I come inside.

There is another bar downstairs in the Stalls.

I can buy a drink or a snack while I wait.

There are toilets in the Stalls Bar and on the Dress Circle Level.

There is an Accessible Toilet in the Stalls Bar.

- This can be opened with a radar key.
- If I don't have one, the staff can open it for me.

The staff will let me know when the Auditorium is open, and I can take my seat.

If I am sitting in the Dress Circle I will go upstairs.

If I am sitting in the Stalls I will go downstairs.

There is a lift which goes from the foyer to the Stalls.

My ticket will have a letter and a number that tells me which seat to sit in.

Seat Number

Seat Letter

The Theatre will get busy but that is OK.

If I feel overwhelmed, I can go and sit on my seat.

I can talk to any member of staff, and they will help me.

When it is nearly time for the show to begin, staff members in the bar will let everyone know.

I might hear bells ringing and the doors to the auditorium will close.

Before the show starts, the lights in the auditorium will start to darken.

When this happens, I know I must turn my phone off and put it away and do my best to sit quietly.

There might be parts of the show that make me nervous, like loud noises or flashing lights.

Before the show starts, I can ask a person working at the theatre to let me know before these things happen and they will be happy to help me.

It is OK if I feel nervous.

I can cover my eyes, wear headphones, or leave the auditorium if I need.

There might be parts of the show that I really like, or think is funny.

When this happens, I can clap or laugh.

Other people might clap and laugh too.

If this bothers me, I can cover my eyes, wear headphones, or leave the auditorium if I need.

If I leave the auditorium, someone will help to get me back to my seat at an appropriate point.

When the show is over the actors will bow.

The audience will clap,
cheer and stand.

I can clap and cheer too
if I want to.

The lights will come back on, and everyone will leave the Theatre.

This will be busy, and I might have to wait my turn to use the aisle and exit through the doors

If I need any help I will ask a member of staff.

I am really looking forward to my trip to Trafalgar Theatre.
